

Mortgage Document Guide

What to gather, what to expect, and how to stay organized.

INSIDE THIS GUIDE

Why documents matter, what W-2 and self-employed borrowers often provide, and how to stay organized so your loan moves smoothly.

Why Documents Matter

When you share the right documents early, your loan team can verify details and build the right plan.

Build a more accurate plan

Documents give your team a clear picture so they can design a loan strategy that fits your goals.

Help your team move efficiently

Complete, organized documents help prevent delays and keep your application moving.

Reduce surprises later

Verifying information up front helps identify roadblocks early.

Stay confident and prepared

Knowing what to expect helps you feel in control every step of the way.

W-2 Borrowers Often Provide

A preview of the most common items your loan team may request.

Most recent W-2s

Usually the past two years to confirm earnings.

Recent paystubs

Typically the last 30 days to verify your income.

Bank statements

Typically the last 2 months to review assets and activity.

Driver's license

A valid photo ID to verify your identity.

NOTE Every situation is different — your loan team will explain exactly what is needed for your loan.

Self-Employed Borrowers Often Provide

A preview of the most common items your loan team may request.

Personal tax returns

Typically the last 1–2 years, including all schedules.

Business tax returns

Typically the last 1–2 years (Schedule C, K-1s, 1120, etc.).

Bank statements

Typically the last 2–3 months of business and personal statements.

Driver's license

Getting Organized

Staying organized keeps your loan moving and makes everything smoother for you.

Save files as PDFs

PDFs are secure, easy to read, and help prevent delays.

Keep everything in one folder

A central folder keeps documents easy to find and share.

Label files clearly

Clear names help everyone know exactly what's inside.

Send complete pages

Make sure all pages are included and easy to read.

Ask questions if unsure

We're here to help. No question is too small.
